Our Mission

Eventide's Purpose is to showcase an array of Cape Cod's creative voices to year-round Cape audiences. We produce provocative, established plays which address issues of contemporary concern; new works developed in workshops and performances by Cape playwrights and songwriters; and concerts featuring outstanding Cape and Islands musicians.

Dear Friends of Eventide:

We welcome you to our 2009-2010 Season of thought-provoking theatre, outstanding music performance, and exceptional theatrical and musical creativity by Cape and Islands talents. As our mission statement makes clear, our aim is to stimulate thought while building a support system for both seasoned and developing artists.

We invite you to join forces with us — your participation is our lifeblood!

We hope you will promote and attend our events, volunteer to work with us behind the scenes, or donate your time and talent to enrich the programs we bring to our Cape community each September through June.

Most of all, we hope to see you among us, spreading the word! Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,
Daniel Fontneau, Artistic Director, Eventide Arts

DEATH OF A SALESMAN

A drama by Arthur Miller

OCTOBER 8-25

Thursdays-Saturdays - 7:30pm

Sundays - 2:30pm

For Willy Loman, there is only one dream: the American Dream. After 36 years on the road in its pursuit, the traveling salesman, haunted by missed opportunities and an uncertain future, must come to terms with a lifetime of self-deception that has distorted his dream into an American tragedy. Perhaps the greatest, most significant American play of the 20th Century, the iconic story of Willy Loman remains a thrilling work of deep, revealing beauty that penetrates to the heart of the American experience. This Pulitzer Prize-winning masterpiece has lost none of its potency or relevance as it examines our national obsession with wealth and success.

CAPE COD CHAMBER ENSEMBLE

NOVEMBER 21 - 22

Saturday - 7:30pm • Sunday - 2:30pm

Lucy Banner and the Cape Cod Chamber Ensemble perform witty and entertaining 20th century sextets for winds and piano by Francis Poulenc and Gordon Jacob. Pianist Lucy Banner is well known to Cape audiences for her past work with the Chamber Ensemble as well as her performances with the Squibnocket Trio. Almost all the wind instrument players are currently principals or members of regional orchestras including the Cape Symphony Orchestra. They are Laura Pardee Shaefer, oboe; Elaine Baker D'Angelo, flute; W. Henry Duckham, clarinet; David Gallagher, bassoon; and George Sullivan, French horn. An intimate concert experience not to be missed.

AN OTHER WOMAN: AN ANGRY ROMANCE FOR ONE VOICE

MARCH 27 - 28

Saturday - 7:30pm • Sunday - 2:30pm

Spoken-word artist and acclaimed playwright Christine Rathbun performs her latest work, An Other Woman: an Angry Romance for One Voice, a funny and unforgettable story of one woman's checkered past and hopeful present. Witty, quirky, often intense theater of relationship and self-discovery, pointed social commentary, and scathing existentialism.

MASTER CLASS

a drama by Terrence McNally

APRIL 29 - MAY 16

Thursdays-Saturdays - 7:30pm

Sundays - 2:30pm

Maria Callas was as famous for her extraordinary private life and love affair with Aristotle Onassis as she was for her groundbreaking achievements as an opera star. Like a bright shooting star she rose to the heights of international fame and all too quickly burned out as her public and private lives fell into dramatic conflict. In this Tony Award winning play, we join 'La Divina' in a master class as she puts three aspiring opera singers through their paces. With razor sharp wit, devastating honesty, reckless embellishment, and extravagant generosity, she publicly shares her passion for her craft and privately reveals her inner torments and personal sacrifices made in the name of art and love.
